JORGENSEN: So that may be one way you get out of it, and it stops. But you have another way in mind?
CASSANDRA: Even so, even when it is like that, it's like, I feel like he's just saying it just to, like, end it.
JORGENSEN: You don't really trust it.
CASSANDRA: Just to get that peace and calm.
JORGENSEN: Right
CASSANDRA: Yeah.
JORGENSEN: So it's a way that you both kind of call a truce. Like, you don't really buy it, but you'll go along with

I. YALOM: OK. Was last week in any way unusual? Was there any particular influence of anything we talked about last week that may have contributed to this?
EUGENIA: I don't think it was anything particular. I just think it's me becoming overwhelmed and frustrated that because I feel like I'm trying to figure this out and that I'm stronger than all of these thoughts or whatever.
I. YALOM: Sure.
EUGENIA: But I just feel like maybe I'm not trying hard enough, or it's just like, why can't I figure this out kind of thing.
I. YALOM: How are your feelings, especially about anything that happened or we talked about last week, or

How to Make Clips

Where to find Embed Code and Permalinks for Clips

Our platform includes an easy to use clip making function. This allows faculty and students to name and generate unique clips for any video in your collection. Clips can be of any length.

We have found these clips are often integrated into curricula by professors for lectures and assignments, and suggested by clinical supervisors as ongoing resources that can be accessed autonomously as one works on gaining skill proficiencies.

A permalink will allow faculty/students to directly link to and share any customized clip in your collection.

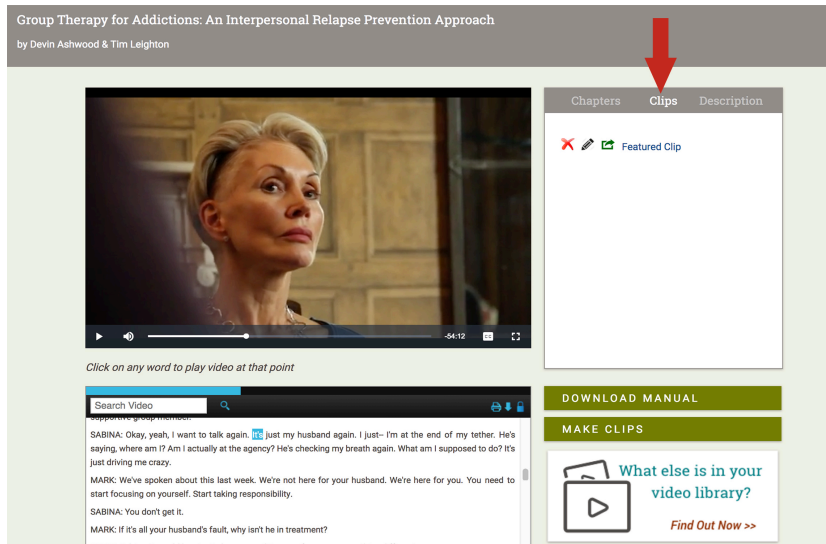

Embed code allows one to add a clip to an ILS or LMS. (e.g. Moodle, Blackboard, Canvas, etc)

Please note: If you wish to embed the entire video into a LMS, please make a clip of the entire video.

1. To make a clip, pause the video and then simply follow these two steps: 1) Select the content in the transcript you wish to clip and 2) Click on the “Make Clips” button to the right of the transcript, and then name it. When a clip is created, a permalink and embed code are automatically generated.

2. To find the clip, please go to the "Clips" tab found to the right of the video viewer.

3. To find the permalink and embed code, once on the "Clips" tab, click on the "Green Share Icon" next to the clip's name.

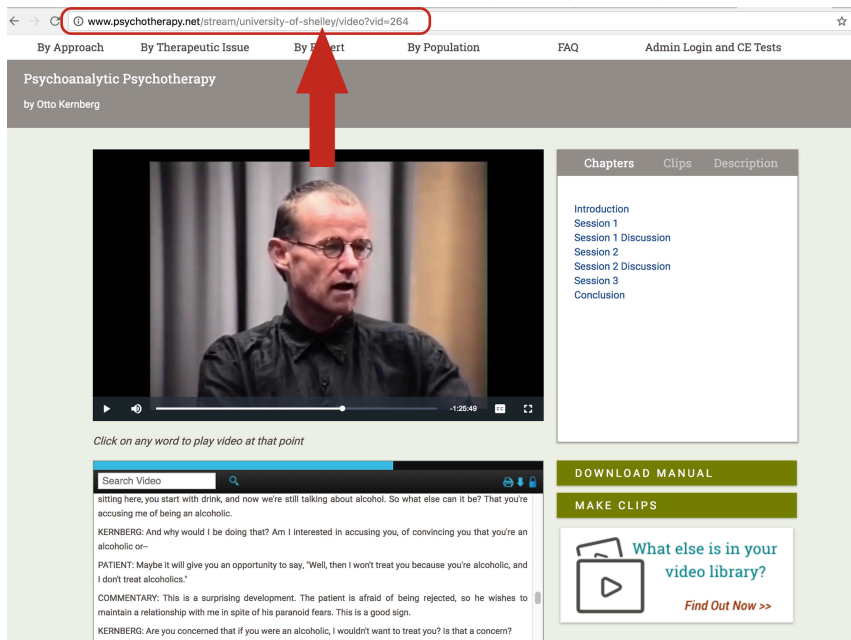

Discover Videos Based on Content Areas

1. Learning Centers: Our discovery learning centers can be found via the Top Navigation. (Look for a row of text just below the dark grey bar towards the top of the screen.) They assist one in finding videos that address specific content areas. One may view titles by Approach, Therapeutic Issue, Expert and Population.
2. Keyword Search: One may also use the "Search your video library" search field found in the top right within the dark grey bar to find titles.
3. Topics: When one clicks a video's image in the video library, a window pops up. At the bottom of that pop-up window, a section is offered with the title, "Topics". These include all the topics the video addresses. These Topics are hyperlinked and will link one to a page in the video library showing other titles that address that content area as well.

How to Find Direct Links for a Video or Groups of Videos so you can easily share with others

1. Direct Single Video URL Access

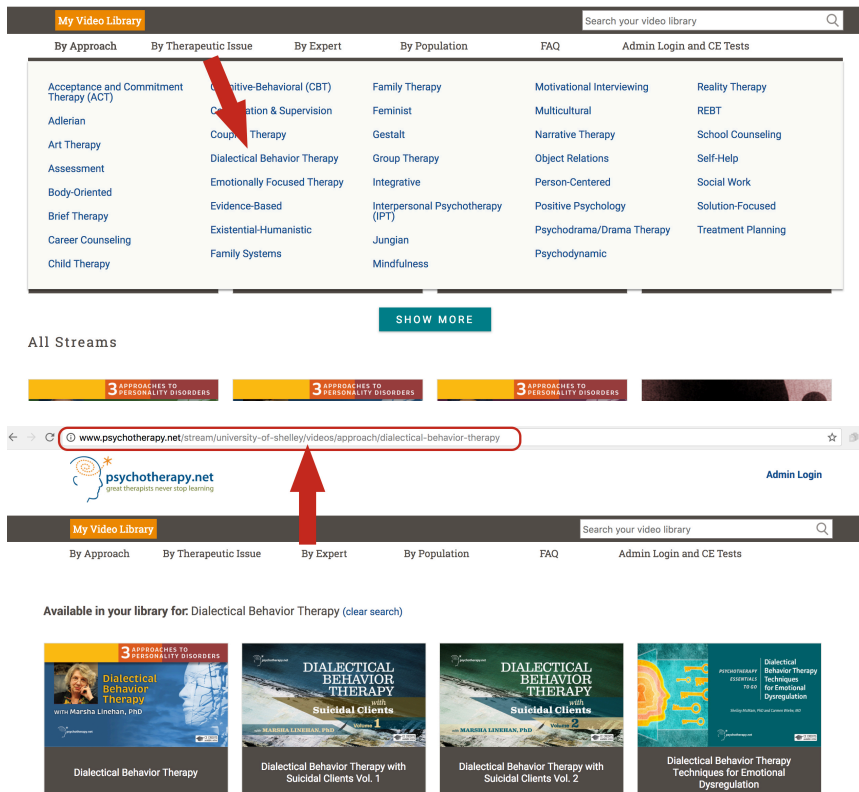

All videos in your video library will have their own URL. Once one has entered the video library and has selected a title to view, the URL in the address bar may be copied and shared with other users for direct access to any of the videos in your library.

2. Obtain a URL to directly access and/or share videos that address specific content areas

When one selects a content area via a learning center, uses the keyword search bar, or selects a topic in the pop-up window, a URL is generated in the address bar, and a list of videos that match that content area/search criteria will appear in the video library.

The URL in the address bar may be utilized in the future to directly access this list of titles or shared with students or colleagues who also have access to your video library.

How to Create a Direct Link for a Specific Video using the Video's ID#

Our Full Collection and Social Work Collection title lists contain each title's corresponding video ID. We have listed the Video IDs in their own column on our title lists. They may be found in the column furthest to the right.

To create a URL for this title to directly access in the future, simply add the Video ID (the blue number in the below example) to the end of your video library URL.

<http://www.psychotherapy.net/stream/institution ID/video?vid=209>

The institution ID is site specific. To determine your institution ID, simply look at the URL in the address bar of your browser. The institution ID will always be found after "/stream/" in the URL.

In this case, the institution ID is “university-of-shelley”.

The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the URL www.psychotherapy.net/stream/university-of-shelley/video?vid=209. The page title is "Building Confidence in Motivational Interviewing" by Cathy Cole. The video player shows a man and a woman in a therapy session. The right sidebar lists chapters: Introduction, Janet: Clarifying a plan of action, Julie: Eliciting Personal Strengths, and Vance: Increasing Commitment. Below the video player is a search bar and buttons for "DOWNLOAD MANUAL" and "MAKE CLIPS".

If your library is using a proxy server the URL above will look a bit different, however the video ID will always be placed after "video?vid=" in the URL.

For example, a URL may look like:

<http://0-www.psychotherapy.net.ezproxy.xxx.edu/stream/InstitutionID/video?vid=209>
